2020-21 Session Topics

- Technology for Teachers
- Instructional Strategies
- Inquiry-Based Learning
- Lab/Learning Environment Management
- Integration of Core Academic Standards
- Curriculum and Lesson Plan Development, Pacing, and Structure
- Cluster-specific Breakout Time

- CTE Teacher Time Management (So you can have a personal life)
- Teacher Evaluation and Professional Learning Plans
- Improving Your Curriculum Planning/Development
- Classroom and Behavior Management
- Social and Emotional Learning Standards and How to Integrate
- Building Your CTE Educator Support Network

- Funding Your Program
- IEPs/504 and the CTE Classroom and Laboratory
- Care and Feeding of the Career and Tech Ed Student Organization (CTSO)
- What is Perkins V and how do I develop the required programs of study?
- Developing and Working with your Advisory Committee
- Accessibility for Special Populations: Recruitment and Inclusion
- Building Your Program: Developing a Recruitment and Retention Plan

Quarterly Book Study: You will be provided with a book specifically for new CTE teachers for quarterly virtual meetings.

Optional Curriculum Workshop Time—Collaborate with other new and experienced CTE teachers from your Career Cluster, bring curriculum you would like to improve or develop outlines for new curriculum.